

Certificate in Women's and Gender Studies (WGST) FAQ's

What is the process for getting a certificate in Women's and Gender Studies?

- 1) Complete and submit an "Certificate Intention Form";
- 2) Take three (3) courses in Women's and Gender Studies;
- 3) submit "Certificate Completion Form" [due date] in which you finish your third course;
- 4) You will receive your certificate.

Can my three WGST courses be in different disciplines?

Absolutely! Please choose three courses that fit best with your degree plan and career goals. You can also talk to your advisor or a WGST faculty member to about your course choices.

What if I miss the deadline to apply for my certificate?

Certificates are generated only once each semester. If you miss the deadline, submit the "Certificate Completion Form" anyway. Your certificate will be generated during the following semester.

What if I never finish the WGST certificate process?

Sometimes this happens. There is no penalty for ceasing the process other than not receiving a certificate.
