

Unilink Transfer Agreement between University of Houston-Clear Lake and Prospective Unilink Student

To be eligible for the Unilink program, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. Completed 36 college credit hours or less.
2. Have Unilink Agreement signed by college/university counselor.
3. Must be in academic and financial good standing at present or previous college/university.

Unilink students receive the following benefits from University of Houston-Clear Lake:

1. Transfer admission counseling and course work information.
2. Application fee will not be assessed.
3. Academic advising.
4. Degree plan under catalog in effect at the date of signature of this document
5. UHCL ID card.
6. Library access.
7. Membership in student organizations.
8. Career and counseling services through Academic Transfer Advising department.
9. Unilink and university sponsored events.

The following guidelines apply:

1. The student's enrollment at UHCL is governed by the terms and provisions of the UHCL Catalog in effect at the semester of transfer.
2. Student must maintain continuous enrollment at a college or university for this agreement to remain in effect. If a student fails to maintain continuous enrollment, then the student will be required to submit the application fee to UHCL and will be subject to the UHCL catalog at the time of application and enrollment.
3. Student will comply with UHCL advising requirements.
4. Student may cancel this agreement at any time upon written notice to the UHCL Office of Admissions.
