

Human Resource Management student organizations

The Society for Human Resource Management is the world's largest professional association for human resource managers. It represents more than 225,000 members in over 125 countries, and provides its members with current and comprehensive resources to advance the profession. There are two local chapters in Houston.

HR Houston is a non-profit professional organization that offers its members networking and professional development opportunities, including meetings with nationally recognized speakers, and conferences and workshops throughout the year. Student membership is $15 a year.

Bay Area Human Resource Management Association is a non-profit professional corporation serving the Tri-County Area of Brazoria, Galveston and Harris counties. They strive to further professional development and cooperation between human resources and management representatives of business, commerce, industry and government. Dr. Alix Valenti and Dr. Leonard Love are the UHCL faculty co-sponsors. Meetings are held once a month and student membership is $25 a year. Mail fee and application to Amber Williams, PO Box 591671 Houston, TX 77259.
