

Informative Websites for American Slang & Idioms

<http://a4esl.org/q/h/idioms.html>

Website offers lists and quizzes of idioms, idiom phrases, idiomatic expressions, and slang categorized according to difficulty (medium-difficult). Each category offers an interactive quiz section in which the student is able to read sentences containing idioms and/or slang and choose the correct answer.

www.wordpower.ws/idioms/a.html

Website offers a thorough list of idioms alphabetized from A-Z and interactive quizzes.

www.eslpartyland.com/quiz%20center/quiz.htm

Karin's ESL PartyLand- The Quiz Center offers several ESL learning activities including slang, idioms and verbal phrases. This interesting and interactive website allows the student to read sentences containing idioms and/or slang and chose the correct answer in a fill-in-the-blank, multiple choice or matching format.

www.eslcafe.com/slang/

Dave's ESL Café website offers a collection of slang presented in three manners: 1) alphabetical lists of meanings and examples, 2) random slang from the collection, and 3) a complete list of all slang in the collection.

www.idiomconnection.com/

A website of English idioms and quizzes; contains 100 of the most frequently used English idioms.

www.idiomsite.com/

An informative list of idioms and their origins listed in alphabetical order.

www.settlement.org/site/CELEBRATE/idioms.asp?show=1

This website allows the student to read and listen to over 100 English idioms; provides the idiom, definition and an example.

www.manythings.org/slang/

This website allows the student to read sentences containing slang words and choose the correct answer. More than 200 commonly-used American slang words are listed alphabetically for easy use.